

Welcome To INTACT E-newsletter

March 30, 2015 – Issue No. 39

Hello INTACT members!

English News

Mother jailed for circumcision of 4 year-old daughter in Ivory Coast

A mother who took her four-year-old daughter to be circumcised was sentenced to one year in prison Wednesday in the north of the Ivory Coast, where such convictions are rare. More...

Sierra Leoneans halt genital mutilation amid Ebola fears

The Ebola epidemic that has ravaged West Africa appears to have brought the practice of female genital mutilation (FGM) to a near halt in Sierra Leone, a British minister said on Friday. More...

Female Genital Mutilation: An Exeter Conference Highlights The Problem

Exeter, England hosted its first conference on March 23, which dealt with 'female genital mutilation,' a subject which is quite unmentionable. But the problems that come with female genital mutilation may require attention, therefore, this conference came at an opportune time, an Express and Echo report stated. More...

How to End Female Genital Mutilation in Egypt

The ghost that haunts Mansoura Mohamed's nightmares is an old lady dressed in black. This apparition dates back to a summer in the late 1980s, in the village of Seflaq, Egypt. More...

FGM: New NHS rules mean women with genital piercings will be recorded as suffering female genital mutilation

Women who have genital piercings will be recorded as having suffered female genital mutilation (FGM) under new NHS rules due to come into force next month. More...

Tanzania: Tarime Traditional Leaders Join FGM Fight

Tarime — IN the past, it was difficult for a traditional leader of Kurya tribe to talk anything against female genital mutilation (FGM). This is no longer the case at the moment. More...

MPs take aim at DfID as inaction on FGM in Sierra Leone heads list of 'failures'

Department for International Development accused of missing opportunity to stamp out female genital mutilation, with work elsewhere also criticized. More...

The International Network to Analyze, Communicate and Transform the Campaign against FGM/C (INTACT), is an international group of researchers, scholars, and activists committed to bringing scientific evidence to bear on the campaign to end FGM/C. INTACT serves as a forum for FGM/C debate and helps bridge gaps in knowledge and information relevant to FGM/C on the local and the international levels. INTACT helps communicate lessons learned, disseminate research, and promotes the utilization of research findings to assist in the campaign against FGM/C. INTACT is managed by the Population Council.

